

Join the Texas Black Expo on Monday, March 1st at Houston's number one networking luncheon, the TBE Lunch & Learn presented by the Houston Citizens Chamber of Commerce. March's seminar is entitled, "Business Compliance: Setting Your Business Up to be Acquired for Millions!"

Business Compliance: Setting Your Business Up to Be Acquired for Millions!

This dynamic seminar will be presented by Marlen Whitley, corporate attorney at Thompson Knight, LLP, an international law firm. Whitley specializes in entity formation, mergers, acquisitions, public and private securities transactions and corporate financing deals. He is actively involved in the community and serves on the board of the Houston Citizens Chamber of Commerce as well as the Texas Black Expo, Inc. As a business owner, you want to ensure that your business is in compliance now, which could save you a ton of cash in the future. You also want to position your business in a manner that will allow you to easily raise capital and potentially be acquired in a multi-million dollar deal. It is possible! If you want to make sure your business is in compliance and leverage it to make some serious cash, the March Lunch & Learn is for you. Attendees will be taught:

The basics of business formation, organization and how to choose the right corporate structure

How raise cash private offerings and securities

The basics of corporate governance

Plus much more!

This is a FREE seminar, but you must RSVP before Wednesday, February 24th in order to attend.

This seminar will take place at 11:30 am on Monday, March 1st at Houston's City Hall (located 901 Bagby) in suite 100.

Lunch will be provided and is FREE of charge, so reserve your space today!

Event Location

Greater Houston CVB
901 Bagby STE 100
Houston, Texas

The Lunch and Learn seminar will start at 11:30 am. Seating and complimentary lunches are limited to the first 60 registered attendees, so reserve your space today!

Click here to RSVP Online today.